

CELEBRATE SCOTLAND

To celebrate the year of coming to scotland Iceni Jewels are producing for the first time in two thousand years body jewels that the pictish nation tribes – the ancient people who formed Scotland – wore to denote tribe and heirarchy.

THE MASSIVE ARMLETS ARE MADE IN THE SAME MANNER OUR FOREBEARERS WOULD RECOGNISE TODAY.

The massive armlet carried two discs with the emblem of the different tribes who, over the turbulent years resisting occupation of their homeland wore.

These tribes are the forerunners of the clans who form the whole identity of Scotland today.

The massive armlets made by IcenI are cast in bronze, silver or gold with the tartan of your clan enamelled on the silver or gold discs.
